The District agrees to:

1. Assist in developing a conservation plan on Cooperator's land,
2. Provide information pertinent to land uses and capabilities, and
3. Offer technical assistance and supervision with regard to the conservation plan implementation.

The Cooperator agrees to:

1. Use their land within its capabilities and needs,
2. Develop and implement a conservation plan on their land unit, and
3. Maintain all structures once established.

It is further agreed that:

1. This agreement is effective on the date of the last signature and may be terminated by either party by written notification.
2. This agreement is understood by both parties involved and neither is liable for damage to the other's property unless damage is caused by negligence or misconduct.
